General Rental Conditions

Article 1. Purpose: This contract is for the exclusive use of Clévacances vacation rentals and only French law is applicable to the contract. This English version of the contract is provided in good faith but should it differ or contradict the French version or should it in any way be unclear, the French version, as available on the gite web site, <http://www.gite-piquetalen.fr/Contrat.pdf> will apply.

Article 2. General Provisions : No change in the contract will be accepted without the written consent of both parties.

The owner agrees not to disclose to any third party any information of any kind, on any medium whatsoever, that the tenant has passed to him on agreeing this contract.

The above provision in regard to information does not apply where inquiries are made by the government and/or by the Courts or Police.

Article 3. Conclusion of Contract and Payment: The reservation becomes effective when the tenant has returned to the owner a signed copy of this agreement and the amount of the advanced payment (maximum 25%) for the rental and has received back a copy of the contract signed by the owner. The balance of the rent must be paid on the day of arrival after the renter has checked the property and signed a form agreeing the state in which the property is handed over to him. The Tenant agrees that this check may be carried out either by the owner or by a duly authorized agent of the owner and with a written proxy.

Expenses not included in the rent must be paid at end of stay .

Article 4. Security Deposit: On arrival the tenant will need to pay a security deposit equal to 50% of the total rent. This is in addition to the balance of the rent. The security deposit will be returned within a maximum period of one month after the departure of the tenant, by the owner, after any deductions made to cover any damage, loss or cleaning. The amount thereof shall be duly justified by the owner on the basis of the inventory departure check , quotes, and invoices. If the deposit is insufficient, the tenant agrees to make up the sum to the total of the invoices furnished by the Landlord. The deposit shall not be taken as part payment of the rent.

Article 5. Duration: The tenant must vacate the premises at the time specified in the contract or at a time convenient to the owner, after the state of the property has been checked . The tenant may in no circumstances invoke any right to remain in the premises on the expiration of the rental period originally specified in the contract , unless otherwise agreed by the owner.

Article 6. Use of premises : The owner will provide the premises in a condition corresponding to the description given and will maintain them in good order. The tenant will occupy the premises without causing disturbance and for their intended purpose. The premises are rented for use as temporary or holiday accommodation (maximum 3 months). All professional or business usage is expressly forbidden

Upon departure, the tenant agrees to leave the premises as clean as he or she found them on arrival. All repairs, large or small, because of negligence or poor maintenance during the rental period, will be charged to the tenant.

The property cannot be rented to third parties without the prior consent of the owner . Subletting is prohibited, even if no charge is made , under penalty of termination, with the owner having the right to retain the full amount of rent paid or due on the property.

The installation of tents or caravans parked on the grounds of the rented property is prohibited without prior consent of the owner . The number of tenants may not exceed the maximum capacity indicated on the catalog or description. In exceptional circumstances and subject to the consent of the owner , this rule may be amended . In this case, the owner will be entitled to receive an additional payment which must be communicate to the Tenant and recorded on the rental contract.

Article 7. Pets: If the owner accepts pets, the tenant must specify the animal(s) that will accompany him or her. The owner may require an additional payment be made and this will be specified in the contract,. Internal rules set by the owner may apply

Article 8. Inspection and inventory : An inspection and inventory of the furniture and fittings will be made at the start and end of the contract, by the Landlord (or their representative) and the Tenant. If unable to make the check on arrival , the tenant will have 72 hours to check the condition of the property and its inventory and report any discrepancies to the owner. After this period, the rented property will be assumed to have been free of damage on the tenant's entry into it. A form agreeing the condition of the property on exit should be signed by both parties. The Tenant agrees that the check may be performed either with the owner or his representative. If the owner or his agent finds damage, they must notify the tenant within one week.

Article 9. Termination conditions :

Any termination of this Agreement must be sent by registered mail with receipt of delivery. The delivery date will be considered the relevant date.

a) Cancellation by the renter.

In the event of cancellation by the tenant before arrival, the advanced is forfeited to the owner and the owner has the right to demand payment of the balance (75%) which would otherwise have been due arrival.

If the tenant does not arrive within 24 hours of the arrival date indicated on the contract, this contract is deemed to be cancelled and the owner can re-rent the property. The owner can retain the advanced payment and demand payment of the balance on the rental.

b) Cancellation by the owner.

In case of cancellation by the owner , he or she must reimburse the tenant the full amount paid . The renter can ask for damages and interest or compensation for the loss of their holiday and any financial loss..

c) Cancellation during the contract.

When the contract is terminated by the owner during the term of the holiday rental , the owner must give a full justification (non- payment of rent, proven damage to the premises, complaints from neighbors ...) . The cancellation must be made by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt. The tenant must leave within two days of receipt of the letter notification. In this case , regardless of the cause of termination, the entire amount of rent will be retained by the owner. The owner reserves the right to retain the security deposit under the conditions specified in Article 4 "Security Deposit " .

Article 10. Interruption of stay: In the event of an early termination of the holiday rental by the tenant, and if the owner has not acted in a way to cause their early termination , there will be no refund, with the exception of the security deposit.

Article 11. Insurance: The Clévacances contract requires the renter to obtain insurance to cover accidental damage to the property. This is in our view, equivalent to Personal Liability Cover and is usually provided as an addition to household insurance or as part of a travel insurance policy.

Article 12. Disputes: All claims must be addressed as soon as possible to Clévacances Tarn, which will attempt to arbitrate the dispute. Clévacances Tarn will only intervene:

- if the contract was signed by both the landlord and tenant ,
- if the claim is made within the first three days after arrival , for any dispute concerning the state of the premises or the description of it
- at the end of the stay for all other disagreements.

For all disputes which may arise in relation to this contract , only the relevant courts in the area of the property will have jurisdiction.

Article 13. Taxe de Sejour: A taxe de sejour (tourist tax) will need to be paid on arrival. It is not included in the costs shown on page 1.
